

The BOOTLEG HONEYES

“A breath of fresh air” -Bill Bowker, KRSH 95.9

Since the summer of 2013 The Bootleg Honeyes have quickly become one of the Bay Area's favorite live Americana acts. Their sweet and lively sound features impeccable three part harmony and musicianship, as well as a hefty collection of finely crafted original material that will pull your heartstrings and get your boots stompin'. Paint it Red is their debut full length album featuring 11 original songs, co-produced by The Bootleg Honeyes and engineer/drummer Mark Tariton The album has been enthusiastically embraced by local fans, and KRSH deejays Robin Pressman and Amber have listed Paint in Red on their top 10 albums of 2015.

The Bootleg Honeyes are Alison Harris on vocals, acoustic guitar, keys and percussion, Hannah Jern-Miller on vocals, lead guitar and harmonica, and Katie Phillips on vocals, acoustic guitar and percussion.
